

Kent Vaughn

“The best part of this job is providing tools and processes that help our clients exceed their goals.”

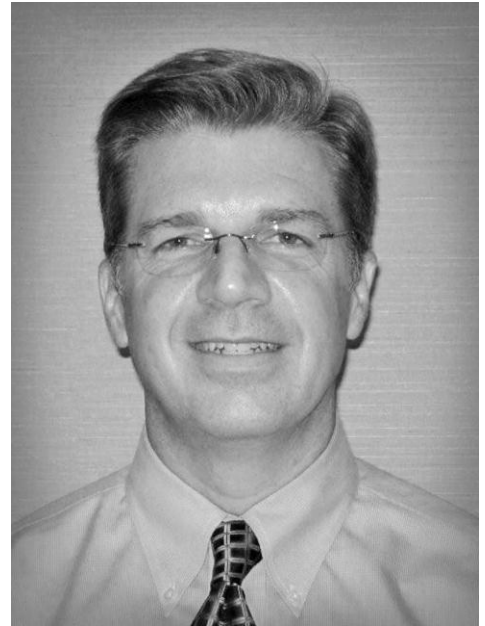

In over 18 years with FranklinCovey Kent has conducted well over 2,000 days of Training, Consulting and Development work for hundreds of organizations and over 100,000 individuals in virtually every size, and type of organization across the United States.

For the last eight years Kent has been the Area Director of the Sales and Consulting team responsible for Tennessee, Arkansas and Kentucky (TAK). He has the honor of working with an awesome team including Susan Bloom, Ginny Gudermuth, Penny Roper, Jason Jolley and numerous Consultants.

Kent was born in Gideon, Missouri. He attended the University of Alabama; where he completed a B.S. in Business Administration and an MBA (in four years) graduating with Honors.

Kent’s work experience has varied tremendously. Prior to joining FranklinCovey in 1993, he spent three years in Europe as a Military Intelligence Analyst for the U.S. Army, seven years as a Sales Representative and Sales Manager; and four years as a Financial Analyst and Operations Manager with a Fortune 100 consumer products company.

Kent has been blessed with a wonderful wife, and three amazing children. He loves swimming, running, working out, and hanging out with his family. Kent earned a black belt on his 40th birthday, ran a marathon for his 45th birthday, and just completed a mile swim for his 50th.

“We have the privilege of helping our clients accomplish their Professional and Personal Goals, by applying the principles we teach. It doesn’t get much better than that.”
